

Syeda Afshana

(Ph. D)

BIO NOTE

Gold Medalist in Mass Communication and Journalism, Syeda Afshana is a faculty at Media Education Research Centre, University of Kashmir. Alumnus of International Academy of Leadership, Germany, and a visiting fellow at Centre of International Studies, Cambridge University, she has extensively written and reported on media, politics, conflict, women, and other aspects of society.

She has 16 years of Substantive teaching experience at post-graduate level which includes two years of her doctoral research on “Media Response to 26/11: A Study of Indian Print Media” under Self-Supervision. Besides, having experience of guiding PhD research scholars.

Her specialization includes Convergent Journalism, International Communication, Narrative Journalism, Conflict Reporting, and Print Media (Editing). She is doing a regular weekly column for local English daily newspaper Greater Kashmir since last one decade, besides contributing for Indian national news magazines.

She has also authored a volume of poems ‘The Fugitive Sunshine’, an anthology of essays titled ‘Freeze Frame, Glimpses from Kashmir’, a collection of narratives named ‘Backyard of Corpses’ and book of essays on gender issues ‘Gender Gamut’.

Google Link : <https://g.co/kgs/pv43C8>